

Denise Friedman, PhD

Board of Directors

Child Health Investment Partnership of Roanoke Valley (CHIP-RV)

Child Health Investment Partnership RV's

Expertise or Research Focus Area:

- Home visiting program that pairs pregnant moms, low-income children and their guardians with a Community Health Nurse and Family Case Manager to
 - help them access needed medical services,
 - assist with the management of chronic conditions
 - provide developmental education, kindergarten preparation and regular child assessment and monitoring.
 - Prenatal case management, health care coordination, family strengthening, medically complex & NICU case management, oral health support, respiratory disorders case management and mental health counseling are provided as supplemental services to target specific needs.
 - CHIP strives to build parenting confidence and provide support to families as they set and reach goals moving toward self-sufficiency.

Child Health Investment Partnership RV's Partnership Interests:

- Grant opportunities
- Service connections
- Volunteerism
- Research-assessment collaborations
- Staff work-life balance initiatives
- Fundraising
- Event partnering
- Other