

Researching Homeopathy

- HOHM Foundation -Four-fold approach
 - Make clinical homeopathy care accessible to all
 - Establish a body of high quality, evidence-based homeopathy research
 - Fund homeopathy study and research at every level
 - Curate a comprehensive historical and research library

Christine D. Luketic
HOHM Foundation

<https://hohmfoundation.org/>

Office of Research | Consulting Researcher

Furthering and elevating the evidence base

- expert opinion
- cultural beliefs of the consumer of the health care
- rigorous- evidence for integrative, complementary medicine efficacy
- honors tradition of 220+year old medicine
 - (WHO Global Atlas of traditional, complimentary and alternative medicine estimated 550 million people, 2005)

Ongoing research

- Upcoming publication
 - “Clinical Outcomes in Chronic Conditions: Findings from a Homeopathy Teaching Clinic using the MYCaW Instrument”, (A. Gray, C.Luketic, P.Pracjek, D.Straiges, 2024)
 - North American Homeopathy Student survey findings (C.Luketic, A.Gray, 2024)
- Clinical Audit:
 - Acute care case data (4,000+ cases) from Covid-19 treatment
 - Chronic care case data from teaching clinic (500+cases)
- Clinical trial research with focus on improving lives of participants
- Cohort study
- Survey research

Christine D. Luketic, Ph.D., MPA

- Ph.D. in Education Research and Evaluation from Virginia Tech in Blacksburg, Virginia.
- MPA and a BA from the American University in Washington DC.
- She is an expert in the field of social science research and methodology, including statistics, psychometrics, and qualitative methodologies, with over 25 years of experience. She has taught as an adjunct faculty at Virginia Tech as well as other universities and currently works full-time at Virginia Tech in the field of analytics and reporting.

