

Jody Russon, Ph.D., LMFT

Assistant Professor

Department of Human Development & Family Science

Clinical Faculty

Marriage & Family Therapy Program Area

Principal Investigator

ASPIRE Team

Alliance for the Study of Suicide Prevention & Intervention through Relationship Enrichment

Research Focus Areas:

- Suicide prevention and intervention for adolescents, young adults, and early career professionals
- Implementing evidenced based programs in clinical/community settings for underserved youth
 - LGBTQ+ youth and the organizations who serve them
- Attachment-informed family therapy approaches

ASPIRE Partnership Interests:

Coming together is a beginning, staying together is progress, and working together is success. –Ford

- Community settings serving youth populations
- Organizations preparing the clinical workforce
- LGBTQ+ organizations
- Settings providing family-centered care

